

Request for Review of Nonconforming Status and Supporting Documentation

This document is intended as a guide and not for use to cover every possible nonconforming issue. Whatever document or format is used to request nonconforming status review should describe the purported nonconformity(ies); providing details of how it is nonconforming, and dates of nonconforming activity. Attach documentation of the purported nonconformity and dates thereof. If improperly completed and/or no documentation is attached, the process may be delayed and/or the request subject to rejection. All information provided is reviewed, researched, and verified to the best of our ability.

This affidavit set forth by the executed signature below states that _____, as the owner of the property located at _____, attests that the premises has a legal, non-conforming _____, which was in existence prior to the adoption of the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Mobile in May, 1967, or date the premises were annexed into the City of Mobile, and has been continuously used as stated below with no break of two years or more; with no reduction or change in area or size, or activity:

Documentation to support the above consists of:

And is is not attached. Failure to attach sufficient documentation will delay a determination, and may result in the inability to verify, and thus denial of nonconforming status.

The above information is said to be true and accurate and is hereby verified by the owner, _____, whose signature is witnessed below.
