REMARKS

The applications consist of two rezoning requests and one Planned Unit Development application. The site received subdivision approval in December 2003.

The overall site is illustrated as residential on the General Land Use Component of the Comprehensive Plan, which is meant to serve as a general guide, not a detailed lot and district plan or mandate for development. Moreover, the General Land Use component allows the Planning Commission and City Council to consider individual cases based on additional information such as the classification requested, the surrounding development, the timing of the request, and the appropriateness and compatibility of the proposed use and zoning classification.

As illustrated on Vicinity Map, most of Lot 2 is zoned B-2, Neighborhood Business; however, a small sliver at the Northwest corner is zoned B-3, Community Business. The applicant is requesting that Lot 2 be rezoned to B-2, Neighborhood Business, to allow the applicant to construct a personal theater; the applicant's primary residence will be located on Lot 1. Theaters are allowed by right in B-2 districts. It should be noted that a buffer, in compliance with Section IV.D.1., is required where the B-2 site adjoins residential property (R-3).

The Vicinity map also illustrates that Lot 1 is split zoned R-3, Multi-Family Residential and B-2, Neighborhood Business. The applicant proposes to develop Lot 1 with a primary residence, observation terrace, gazebo, lake and walking trails. Due to the unique nature of the development, the R-3 rezoning should be subject to an approved PUD; ensuring that a multi-family development such as town-homes and apartments, would require additional approvals.

The Zoning Ordinance requires full compliance with the landscaping and tree planting requirements for B-2 and R-3 sites; and compliance should be coordinated with Urban Forestry as many of the trees may be claimed for credit.

Planned Unit Development review examines the site with regard to its location to ensure that it is generally compatible with neighboring uses; that adequate access is provided without generating excess traffic along minor residential streets in residential districts outside the PUD; and that natural features of the site are taken into consideration. PUD review also examines the design of the development to provide for adequate circulation within the development; to ensure adequate access for emergency vehicles; and to consider and provide for protection from adverse effects of adjacent properties as well as provide protection of adjacent properties from adverse effects from the PUD.

The PUD request would allow for allow for cross access via trails for the lots, as well as the proposed accessory buildings on Lots 2 and 3.

The overall site fronts Cody Road, a planned major street, and the subdivision approval granted by the Commission required the provision of an additional setback on Lot 1 and the dedication of additional right-of-way along Lot 2 (Lot 2 is zoned commercial). The approval also required Traffic Engineering approval for the number, location and design of all curb cuts; and the approval of all federal, state and local agencies due to the water features associated with the site.
